It will be highly gratifying to this community to learn that the Alumni Oration before the S. W.P. University for this year will be delivered by H. M. Doak, Esq., of Nashville, late editor of the American, and now of the Nashville Banner. Mr. Doak has won for himself an enviable reputation as a writer, and it may be safely said hat no man in the State has contributed more to elevate the tone of journalism and give to it that dignity which characterizes an enlightened press. His consent to perform this service for the Alumni Association of the University gives universal satisfaction, and in connection with the oration, of Mr. Craft, of Memphis, and the sermons of the preceding Sabbath, by Dr. Markham and Mr. Witherspoon, with other University exercises, will serve to give to this Commencement occasion extraordinary interest. It is to be hoped that large and appreciative audiences will greet the various speakers by 954 Hogsheads.

The tobacco market had a boom last week, there being 954 hogsheads received here during the week, ending Saturday, May 20th. This is the largest number of hogsneads that have been received here for any one week since the war and will in all probability swell the receipts for this season largely over those of last year. 621 hogsheads of this number were received by rail, 166 by river and 167 by wagon. The total receipts for the season up to Saturday, 20th, were 11,796 hogsheads. This, we believe, already equals the total receipts for last season.

The above showing must be very encouraging to our tobacco menging to show, as it does, that so far from Clarksville decreasing in popularity as the best tobacco market in the land, it is constantly and steadily increasing.
